CONTEXT

CONTEXT

Context is the circumstances that form the setting for an event, statement, or idea, and in terms of which it can be fully understood and assessed.

Let's eat, Grandma!

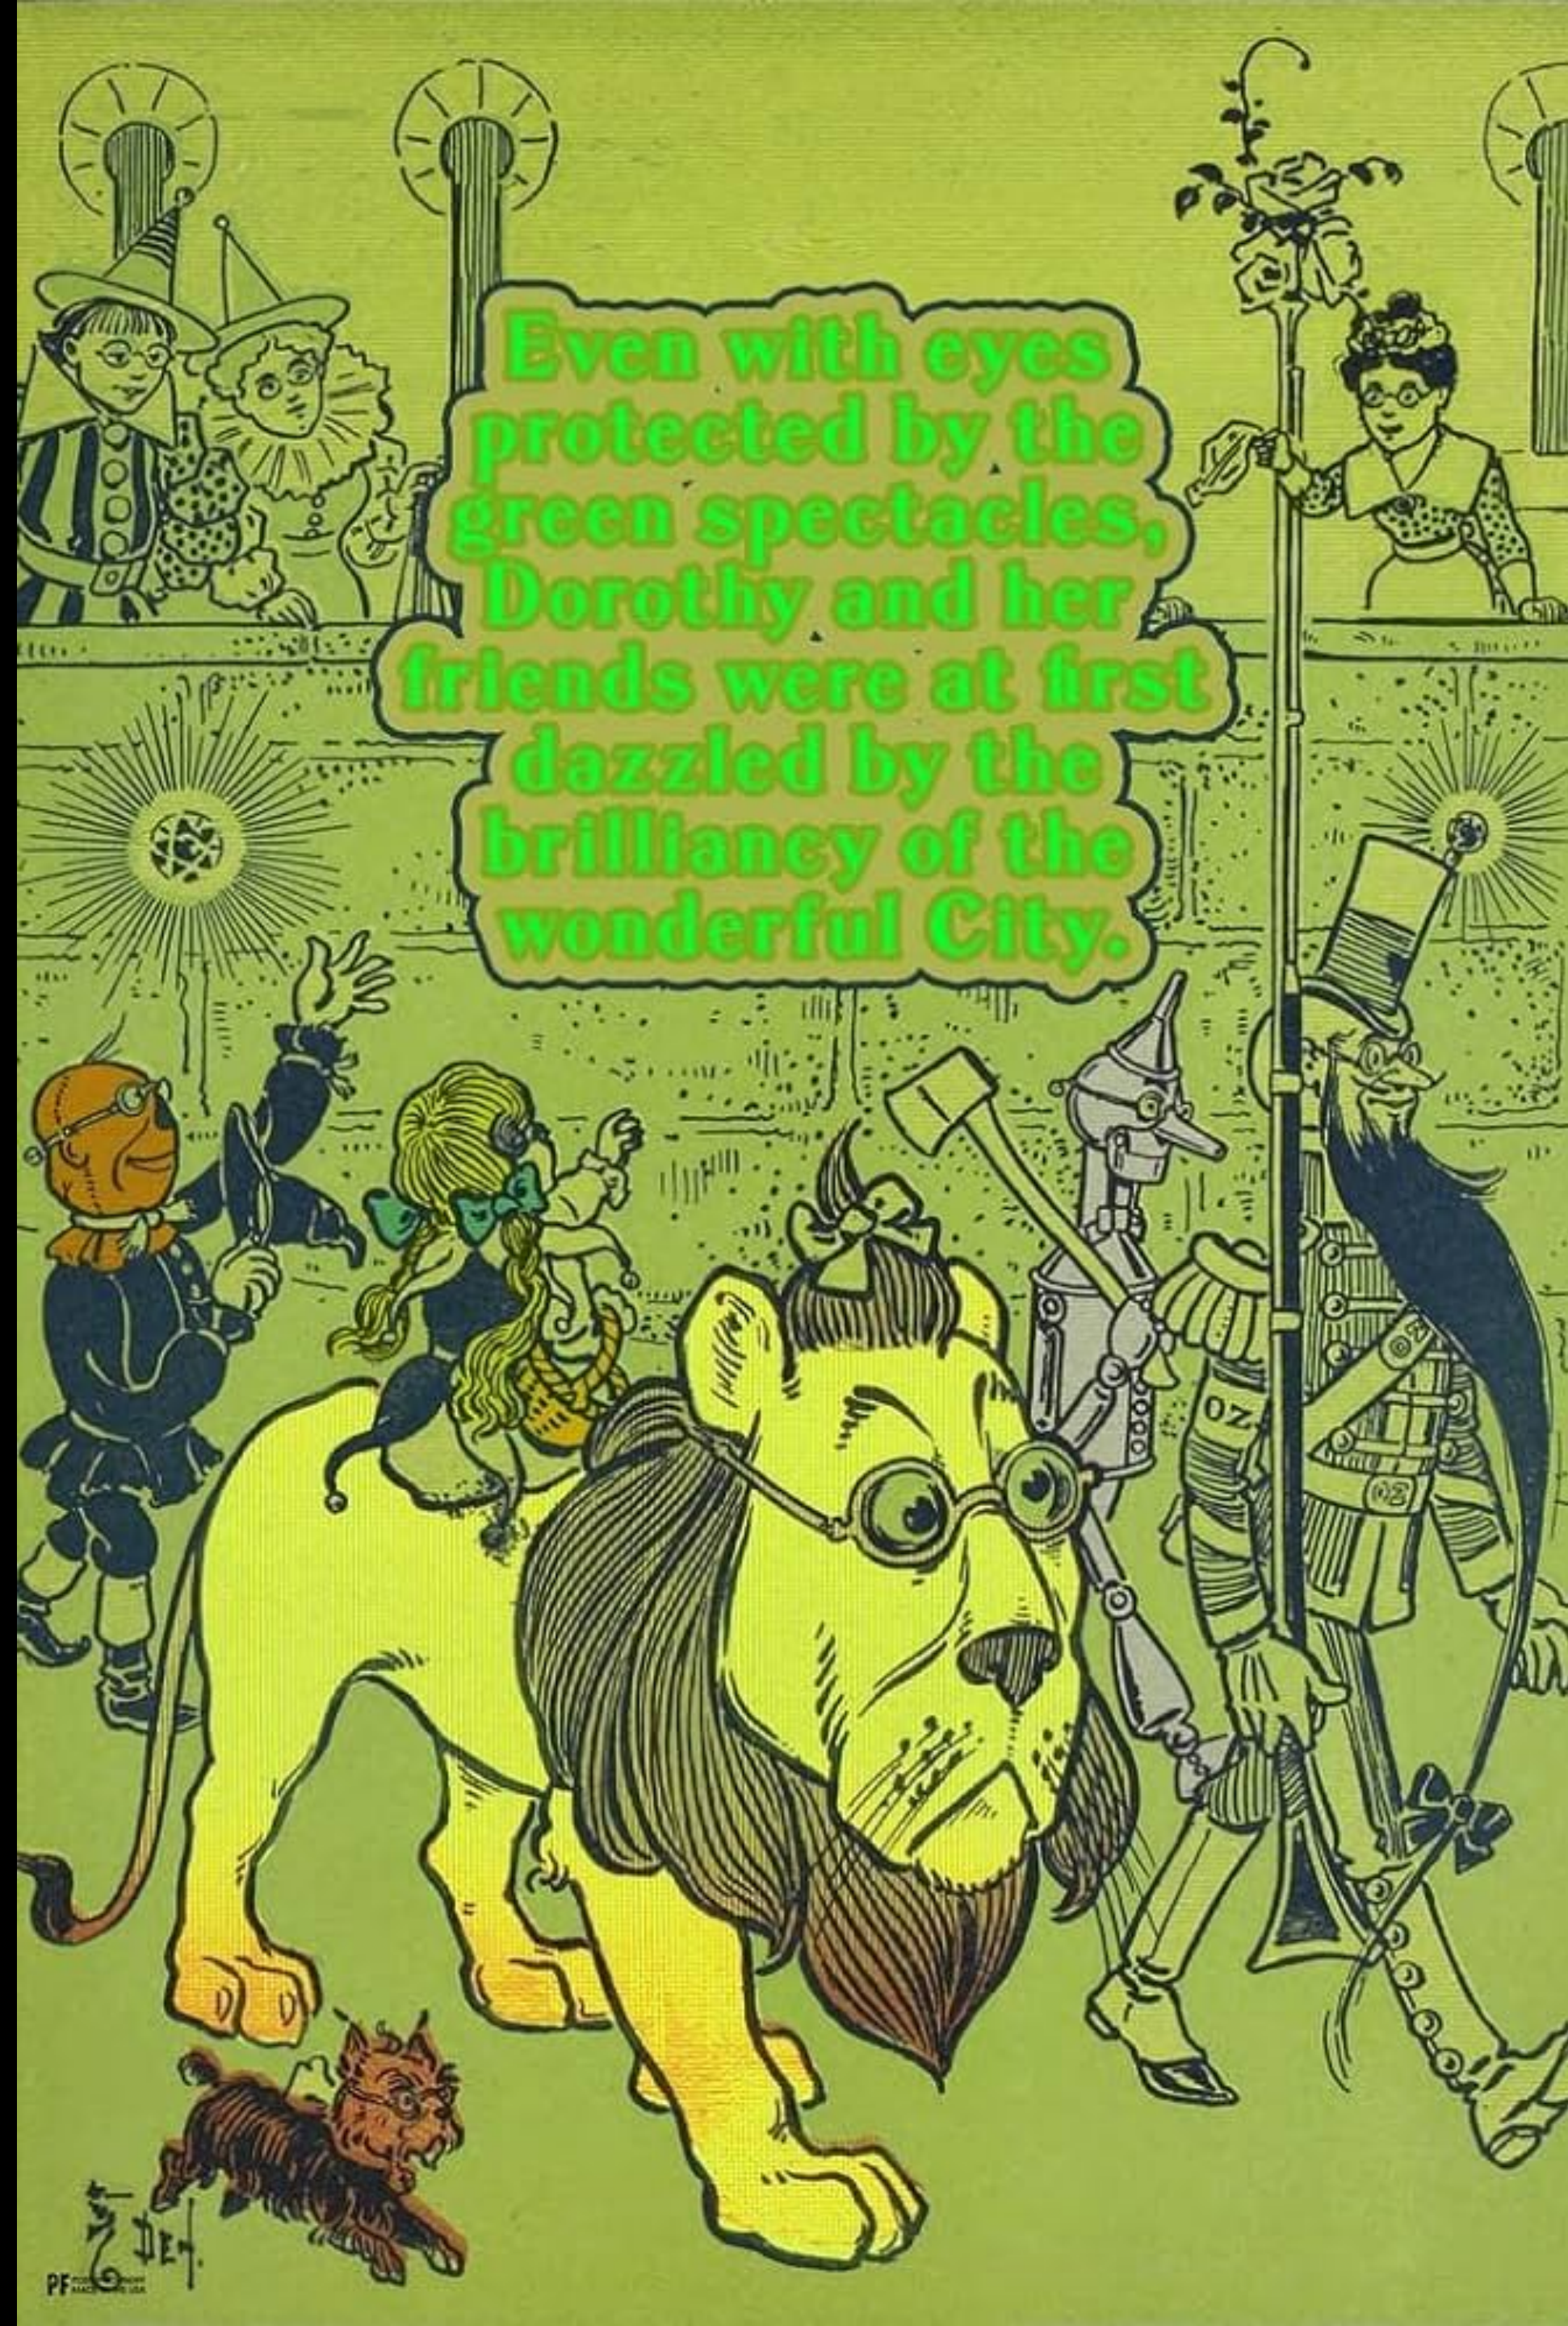

A classical painting depicting a dramatic scene. In the foreground, a group of figures in classical attire are gathered on a rocky shore. A man in a blue tunic and red cloak is prominent, gesturing towards a large, dark, rocky formation in the background. Other figures are visible, some holding spears and shields, suggesting a military or heroic context. The background features a dark, stormy sky and a body of water with a ship visible in the distance. The overall tone is dramatic and heroic.

The Lord said to Moses, “When you return to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders I have given you the power to do. But I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go. Then say to Pharaoh, ‘This is what the Lord says: Israel is my firstborn son, and I told you, “Let my son go, so he may worship me.” But you refused to let him go; so I will kill your firstborn son.’”

Exodus 4:21-23

“Throughout the story of the Bible, Yahweh is constantly overturning human structures of power and privilege.”
